ANIMAL TUBERCULOSIS AND TUBERCULINE TEST.

The following letter appeared in the "Dundee Courier" recently—
The ultimatum presented by the "Export" buyers of pedigree cattle has caused some stir, and set people thinking.
I hope consideration will not be confined to the immediate interests of vendors—or even of buyers—of cattle for export, but extended to cover the national interest.

It is ridiculous to suppose that the country will continue to grow with unwieldy herds of the unsound animals to propagate their species and disease.
It is in the interests of foreign countries to incur such expense in securing only sound breeding animals it cannot be less in the case of the homeland.

Consumers of meat and milk are demanding sound produce, and this demand will not lessen. The aim, therefore, must be to raise sound herds—and not merely to arrange by insurance or otherwise to meet the loss of foreign buyers who get landed with "reactors".

I have heard on "good authority" that some breeders give private undertakings to foreign buyers at auction sales—to relieve them of any "reactors" they may purchase from their lots—and some are known to have taken back such cattle from foreign buyers, without having given any previous undertaking to do so.
Conduct of this sort undoubtedly gives rise to suspicions—but, apart from that, is it fair to other buyers? Certainly it is not.

At an auction sale all must have equal treatment and there must be no privately arranged privileges for any class of purchasers.

I believe that the only real solution of the problem is to arrange for all pedigree herds coming under Government supervision. The Department of Agriculture would then appoint veterinarians who would test all the animals in a herd, as and when expedient. At the same time it should, of course, be made illegal for anyone to procure tuberculous—except such "veterinaries" or for anyone to inoculate or "doctor" animals with the intention of destroying the tuberculous test.

Under this system we would get to know where we are, whether tuberculous can be wholly, or to what extent, eliminated in a properly managed herd,
and coupled with an insurance scheme, justice could prevail and virtue be rewarded.—Wm. Henderson.

COLOSSAL FIGHTING ON EASTERN FRONT.

CULMINATING POINT NOT YET REACHED.

GENERAL PLANZER'S ARMY SURROUNDED.

PETROGRAD, June 24.

The battle on General Brusiloff's right wing has developed into a colossal fluctuating struggle. Three distinct groups of Austrians and Germans are desperately striving to drive a wedge into the Russian threatening Kovel and Vladimir Volynsk.

The opinion prevails here that the culmination of the struggle on this front has not yet been reached. The Russian successes have upset the German plans and caused the Germans to concentrate their forces on the Russian front.

It is reported that General von Mackensen is personally directing the operations, and a repetition of his famous Chancellery tactics is anticipated.

Meanwhile, General Planzer's army is reported to be shut up in an angle of the frontier near the Sereb, being completely surrounded by Russians, while the Austrians are also hastily entrenching in the Carpathian Passes.

GERMAN OFFENSIVES UNSUCCESSFUL.

There were unsuccessful German attempts at an offensive in several sectors south of the Dvina. Heavy fighting began on the 21st, along the Oginski Canal, and this continues, both sides making vain attempts to cross.

The Russian General Stepanov has been mortally wounded.

There has been local fighting along the whole of General Brusiloff's front. The enemy are being constantly reinforced from France and Italy.

THE RUSSIANS REACH THE CARPATHIANS.

A communiqué states:—The offensive in Bukovina continues. We have occupied Gurahumora and Strava, westward of Radauts, and Veshitz, on the north-western border of Bukovina. The Russians have thus reached the Carpathians throughout Bukovina.

AUSTRIA ACKNOWLEDGES THE ADVANCE OF THE RUSSIANS.

AMSTERDAM, June 24.

An Austrian communiqué mentions fighting with the advancing Russians at Gurahumora, in the extreme south of Bukovina, 24 miles south of Radauts.

BOTH SIDES ATTACK SIMULTANEOUSLY.

PETROGRAD, June 24.

The fighting against the Germans on the Stry and the Stokhod is very savage. The country is marshy and roadless, and the fighting is largely of the nature of what the Russians call "encountering actions," where both sides attack simultaneously. The village of Grudzyn, on the Stry, is constantly changing hands. It is most important, because the Russian successes cut the light railway built by the Germans to Kolli.

An encountering action took place at Svidniki, on the Stokhod, where an attack by the Russians, advancing on Kovel, was anticipated by a German advance. Dense columns of the latter drove back the Russians for a mile and a half to the river, but the Germans, attempting to advance further, were caught by machine-gun and rifle fire. A bayonet charge completed their discomfiture, and the Russians rushed the bridge of the river at their heels. An armoured car dashing into their midst completed the demoralisation of the enemy.

The Russians continued to advance on the other side of the Stokhod waist-deep in marshes, carrying their rifles and machine-guns on their shoulders. A slip meant that a man would be engulfed in the bog. The final charge which captured the village was made by men who were dripping with mud from head to foot.

FAILURE OF GERMAN ATTACKS.

A communiqué reports a concentrated enemy artillery fire against the Likulik bridgehead.

We carried out a daring operation in the enemy trenches in the region of Blusht. The Germans attempted to counter-attack but were repulsed.

The Germans started an attack against Bessine Farm, preceded by clouds of gas, which we dispersed. Thereupon large forces of enemy infantry attacked, but a Russian bayonet charge drove them back into their own trenches. The enemy left numerous corpses outside the wire entanglements.

Reports from other districts announce the failure of German attacks.

The Russians continue to advance in Bukovina.

We smashed a Turkish attack in the Tiflis district, inflicting the heaviest losses.

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN

DURING the summer months mothers should watch for any unnatural looseness of the child's bowels. When given prompt attention, as this, some serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon for sale by all Chemists and Storekeepers.

GERMANS MAKE FURIOUS ATTACK.

CAPTURE TRENCHES AFTER HEAVY LOSSES.

PARIS, June 24.

A communiqué states:—There has been a heavy gun bombardment all day on the left of the Meuse.

The Germans on the right of the Meuse, after furious artillery preparation all night, launched a series of attacks at eight in the morning on a front of five kilometres from Hill 321 to east of Damoupy battery. Attacks by great effectives followed, and they were most desperate notwithstanding the enormous losses inflicted by our artillery and machine-guns.

The Germans between Hill 321 and 320, after several fruitless assaults, captured our first line trenches and a Thiaumont work.

A powerful German attack reached the village of Henry, but the enemy was driven back by a sharp counter-attack.

Attacks at Vauchoivre, Fumin and Chenois Woods and Damoupy battery were shattered by our fire and completely failed.

ENEMY DRIVEN FROM TRENCHES WITH THE BAYONET.

A communiqué states:—The Germans three times attacked on a front of 1,200 metres in Champagne. They penetrated trenches west of Mount Tetu, but were driven out with the bayonet, leaving prisoners.

There has been artillery activity elsewhere.

THE BRITISH FRONT.

"NOTHING IMPORTANT TO-DAY."

LONDON, June 24.

General Sir Douglas Haig, in a communiqué, states:—There has been considerable air activity as a result of the fine weather. Yesterday there were twenty-two air combats, mostly indecisive. Two British machines were brought down. The enemy last night emitted gas on a small front south-west of Messines, but the infantry did not attack. There has been nothing important to-day.

ITALIANS PRESS ENEMY AT ASIAGO.

ROME, June 23.

A communiqué states:—We have maintained our pressure against the enemy in Asiago.

ITALIAN MINISTER AT PEKING APPOINTED TO SERBIA.

ROME, June 23.

Count Storza, Minister to Peking, has been appointed Minister to Serbia.

AUSTRIAN OFFENSIVE TOO LATE.

LONDON, June 24.

Mr. Sidney Low, the Times correspondent at the Italian Headquarters, states that he has the best reason to believe that the Austrian offensive is too late. There will probably be a rapid transfer of men and guns to the Carpathians.

THE ALLIES AND GREECE.

THE MEANING OF THE NOTE.

LONDON, June 24.

The Allies' Note to Greece emphasises that Greece was not asked to abandon her neutrality but to maintain a loyal neutrality. It points out that the Chamber does not reflect the opinion of the electors, and that not only is it the right but it is the duty of the Allies to protest against the violations of the liberties of the Greek people, of which they were the guardians.

THE NEW GREEK CABINET.

ATHENS, June 24.

The new Cabinet includes M. Zaimis, Premier and Foreign Minister; M. Callaris, Minister for War and temporarily Minister of Marine; and M. Ballis, Finance Minister. These names have been most favourably received.

M. Zaimis is an experienced and trusted politician of high character and one in whom the Entente can have the fullest confidence.

The diplomatic success of the Allies will enhance their prestige, and, underlining the diplomatic position of the Central Powers more than any other event since the beginning of the war.

REAR-ADMIRAL HONOURED.

LONDON, June 22.

Rear-Admiral Keiverton has been made a Companion of the most Honourable Order of the Bath.

MAJOR-GENERAL W. FITZ TO TAKE CHARGE.

LONDON, June 23.

A Gazette announcement states that Major-General W. Fitz has been appointed temporarily to take charge of the administration of the forces in Ireland, and Major-General Friend, the latter was Commander of the forces in Ireland at the time of the war.

THE MEXICAN TROUBLE.

MILITIA FOR THE BORDER.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

The War Department has ordered the first 5,000 of the militia to be mobilised in the Central and Western States, and to be rushed immediately to the Mexican border.

WAR: FOR OR AGAINST.

NEW YORK, June 23.

The Hearst papers are clamouring for war with Mexico.

It is reported that the Entente diplomats are endeavouring to prevent a rupture.

AMERICANS ATTACKED WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

EL PASO, June 24.

General Pershing has sent a wireless message announcing that stragglers from Carrizal report that 65 Americans were attacked without provocation by 200 Mexicans. A Captain and Lieutenant commanding the negro cavalry were killed.

THE ARAB'S REVOLT.

PROMINENT ARABS MURDERED.

LONDON, June 23.

Reuters learns that a contributory cause to the Arab's revolt was the hanging and shooting and imprisonment of prominent Arabs. Following a visit by Evers Pasha to Mecca two Moslem deputies were executed.

TURKS SHELL SACRED SHRINES.

News has been received that the Turks shelled sacred shrines at Kerbela and Mecca, where the Shi'ah Moslems have risen.

CANADA'S GOVERNOR-GENERAL RETIRES.

EARL CURZON PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.

LONDON, June 23.

It is officially announced that the Duke of Connaught, Governor-General of Canada, is returning to England in October. As Prince Alexander of Teck will be unable to succeed him, being on active service, Reuters' correspondent at Ottawa says Earl Curzon's name is mentioned as the successor to the Duke of Connaught.

THE SALONIKA FORCE.

ALLIES BOMB MILITARY CAMP.

SALONIKA, June 24.

Allied aeroplanes bombed military establishments at Guntulidina Camp and Velea. The Bulgarians demolished the minarets of the Mosque at Ghergheri.

SUCCESSOR TO LORD KITCHENER.

CAUSE OF THE DELAY.

LONDON, June 24.

It is stated that the real cause of the delay in appointing a successor to the late Lord Kitchener is a statutory prohibition of the presence in the House of Commons of more than four principal Secretaries of State. There must be a re-shuffling of offices, or an amendment of the Provisional Act, before Mr. Lloyd George can be appointed.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

MR. REDMOND THREATENS TO RESIGN.

LONDON, June 23.

A conference of Ulster Nationalists voted on the acceptance or otherwise of Mr. Lloyd George's proposals of a settlement. They were accepted by 475 votes to 265.

Another despatch states that the Ulster Nationalists held a private conference at Belfast to consider Mr. Lloyd George's proposals. Seven hundred delegates were present, and Mr. John Redmond presided. It is stated that Mr. Redmond declared that he would resign his leadership of the Irish Party if the exclusion of the six Ulster counties was not accepted by the Convention.

ear-marked for any special fund, but the Committee wishing to "concentrate funds beyond those required for local charities on some object at Home identifiable with the Colony" sought the advice of the Colonial Office as to a suitable scheme. The result was that they decided to support a hospital in London for the sick and wounded officers and men of the Royal Flying Corps to the extent of £10,000 a year. Obviously the first duty of the Committee, before publishing a list of the various other appeals they would like to support, was to ensure the necessary amount of support for the special objects to which they have pledged the Colony. The list of subscriptions to the General Fund published last week showed that the contributions guaranteed by the Committee for the current year are now pretty well secured, and the Committee is thus in a position to give attention to any other deserving fund in need of assistance. But until the main fund was amply secured it was manifestly undesirable to make other appeals. As Mr. HALLIFAX, the Hon. Secretary of the War Charities Fund, put the matter in his recent letter to the papers: "The community is asked to bear in mind that the casualties amongst the first 100,000 dollars caused by the attacks of other charities, have to be made not as readily as were those other casualties in the ranks of the men whom it is our privilege to assist." Our previous comments on the subject were inspired entirely by this consideration, and by no desire to discourage the generous support of objects which in themselves are entirely worthy of it.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Sir Charles Elliot, Principal of Hongkong University, is staying in Shanghai as a guest of Sir Haviland and Lady de Saumarez.

The Police have arrested Wong Lam on a charge of murdering an A.P. at Aberdeen yesterday. As far as is known at present the two men appeared to have had a squabble regarding wages and Wong hit Ah Po in the stomach.

Weihaiwei is reported to be full up with visitors. Both hotels are crowded, and the proprietor recently took another hotel which he equipped with eighteen beds. This house also is filled. Tsingtau and Chefoo are also reported to be filling up with summer visitors.

A Japanese telegram states that Mr. Alston, the Chief of the section of Far Eastern Affairs in the British Foreign Office, will leave London at the end of June as the Council of the British Legation to Peking and upon arrival at Peking Sir John Jordan will take home leave.

In the current issue of the Globe a photograph is reproduced which represents the Hongkong staff of the Chartered Bank of India, Australia, and China. They are all members of the Hongkong Volunteer or Reserve Corps, which has already sent 100 of its members to the front. The names are J. Gibb, J. Macdonald (accountant), W. Dickson (manager), W. J. Hodge (sub-manager), N. J. Austin, C. F. Malby, J. M. Walker, J. R. Watson, D. C. Beadell, A. J. McIntosh, and W. J. Morrison.

The solemn feast of "Corpus Christi" took place yesterday at the Roman Catholic Cathedral. In the afternoon the imposing procession wound twice round the Cathedral compound accompanied by the Band of Police Reserve and a great many of the faithful from the eastern, western and Kowloon districts taking part in it, including several religious confraternities. Bishop Pozzoni carried the Holy Sacrament in a magnificent pyx under a beautifully embroidered canopy supported by the Italian, French, Spanish and Chinese clergy, and a few picked men from No. 2 Company of the Hongkong Police Reserve forming the guard of honour. An eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. P. Agostini and the solemn feast concluded by the benediction of the Holy Sacrament.

SOMETHING DEPENDABLE

The Manchester Association of Importers and Exporters have issued a table of "Outward Conference Rates of Freight on Piece Goods" showing the increase in rates at February, 1916, as compared with rates ruling before the war. The increase per ton to China is 38s. or 85 per cent. In the open market rates rose in some instances as high as 1,160 per cent. over the pre-war rates.

HO FAMILY DISPUTE.

The hearing was resumed in the Supreme Court this morning of the case of Ho Sen Lam, alias Ho Ngok Lam, 2a Park Road, against Ho Cheng Shi, 15 Queen Victoria Street, in Probate, to declare null and void letters of administration of the estate of Ho Wo Lam alias Ho Wan Ping, granted to defendant in January, 1913.

The dispute as to the custody of the son and heir of deceased has formed the subject of much litigation in the Courts. Several hundred thousands of dollars are involved in the estate. The action dwells merely on private affairs and is of little public interest.

CORRESPONDENCE.

THE "STAR & GARTER" BUILDING FUND.

To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."

Sir, Judging from the Hon. Mr. Hallifax's letter in this morning's (Saturday) press the local branch of the Navy League may flatter itself that a very necessary—I was almost going to use that objectionable word "charity"—duty has been brought to the notice of the officially elected War Charities Committee.

Perhaps it was not exactly "sporting" on the part of this committee that without seeking to extend its area to the small attempt on the part of the Navy League it should apparently endeavour to "quest the pitch" as evidenced by para. 3 & 4 of Mr. Hallifax's letter. However, the end is the same so long as the "Star and Garter" Building Fund gets the support whether through the War Charities Committee or the Navy League, but the charge of over-lapping must be borne by the former.

A point I would desire to make is that the Building Fund is an organised effort on the part of the women of Great Britain to find funds to erect this hospital or home and we have been officially invited to assist.

It will be seen from Mr. Hallifax's letter that the War Charities Committee does not care for earmarked donations. I shall therefore be pleased to receive from the public all donations to the "Star and Garter" Building Fund and from the War Charities Committee any earmarked donations which are inadvertently delivered to it.

We want from the Public of Hongkong about $15,000.00.
 Cost of Building one room... £250-0-0
 Cost of Furnishing one room... 100-0-0
 Cost of Endowing one Bed... 1000-0-0
 £1350-0-0

We have to-day sent home £350 and are appealing to the public for the balance. The Fund will remain open until 30th September next, and I have sufficient faith in the people of Hongkong to believe we shall get it.

I am, Sir,
 Your Obedient Servant,
 E. A. M. WILLIAMS,
 Hon. Secretary and Treasurer,
 Navy League,
 Hongkong Branch.

"MISSING" POLICEMAN-SOLDIER.

REPORTED WELL & REINSTATED ON THE ROLL.

Lance-Sergt. Hedge was home on leave when the war broke out in 1914 and being a Service reserve he joined up with the R.F.A. He was sent to France and soon took part in some of the hottest engagements. After one encounter he was missing and it was not until some months later that he turned up again in the Dublin Fusiliers. It was feared he had been killed and as no information could be secured about him, he was struck off the roll. It was not until recently he was heard of as being in a hospital.

Yesterday, however, Mr. T. H. King, the Assistant Superintendent of Police, received a letter from Trooper Hedge who is now serving with King's Edward's Horse in Ireland. In a letter dated May 25th, 1916, he thanks Mr. King and the wives of members of the Police Force for useful and serviceable articles. "Please give my kindest regards and those of my Hongkong Police colleagues who are serving with the 1st King's Edward's Horse to the C.S.P. and the D.S.P. and all my fellow colleagues who are serving in the Hongkong Police Force." I was at the front in the early part of the war, first at St. Omer, Paperlinge, and Ypres and I had my ears affected through concussion of shell, which they call "shell shock." Blood poured out of both ears and caused a discharge and deafness for a considerable time. I was in a London Hospital for three months. I am pleased to say that I am fairly well with my ears now, but at times they affect me a great deal.

"I was informed by Patison and the rest of my colleagues that I was struck off the strength of the Force, but I have been informed by the Crown Agents that everything is all right again and I hope my position as regards seniority will be kept for me." The Colonial Secretary for the Colonies, Mr. Harcourt, granted me everything I satisfactorily full Colonial pay, seniority in rank and all military service to count towards pension when I offered my services. I wrote to the Force while serving in France but I hear the letters never reached Hongkong.

A sergeant of R.E. with leg shattered in France, also much liked his Easter egg—the novelty gratified him. A rather grumpy patient with injured leg who has been months in Hospital and usually grumbles and thinks soldiers will soon be forgotten when the war's over, smiled and thanked me quite warmly for your gift.

The children's caps and jerseys are delightful and I am distributing them with great pleasure. The stationary also is very welcome. The rule before the war in home hospitals was that each man had a week of his personal belongings, and now the rule is that the man is allowed to keep his kit at the station at all times.

Yours truly,
 E. A. M. WILLIAMS,
 Hon. Secretary and Treasurer,
 Navy League,
 Hongkong Branch.

HONGKONG WOMEN'S WAR WORK.

Lady May sends us the following extracts from letters received from Captain Lambkin, B.A.M.C., who will be remembered in Hongkong, and Mrs. Eden, Jackanapes War Society:—

10th General Hospital,
 Alexandria,
 March 15th, 1916.

DEAR LADY MAY,—The parcel of dry cloths arrived safely. Thank you so much for collecting them for us. Mrs. Forsyth and Mrs. Winslow may remember me. I remember them very well. Please convey my best thanks to them.

The box of bandages, etc., arrived safely too. I think Colonel Gordon Hall is writing to you about them. To enable us to expand this hospital we took over a school about a mile away, where we have 800 beds. So we are in two parts which complicates things considerably.

I was originally Registrar and Adjutant to the whole unit, but when Colonel Gordon Hall left us for Cairo, I was put in charge of the school and the Colonel (Scott by name) from the school was given Colonel Gordon Hall's place. So I have now more or less my own show. I have also a sisters' hospital of 54 beds to look after near the school, and it is in this latter hospital that I have used the tea cloths, and a very useful addition they are too. I think they are splendid, and of course well appreciated by the sister patients, who have never come across Swatow work.

Just at the moment we are all at sixes and sevens. We don't know what is to become of us, as the peninsular campaign is over. We are fairly full with cases from local sources, just the ordinary sick, with occasional convulsions of wounded from the western desert. But we are not really busy. I expect later on many of the Egypt Hospitals will close down. I hope to manage to be one and get off to France. On account of this unsettled state I do not like to suggest that you send us any more comforts, although should we move to a sphere of greater activity we should be delighted to have your kind help. I will let you know as soon as we get any definite orders. It is very hard to say what one requires exactly. Everything you send us is extremely useful. If we are receiving wounded the dressings are a great help, and all those sort of little things in the way of tray cloths, covers for sugar bowls, milk jugs, etc., things which we never can get without much labour from the Ordnance Stores, are of the greatest value to us.

Then again things that, although not necessary, add to the general comfort of the ward are very acceptable. The Red Cross do a lot of this for us, but have many calls to answer. Even cushions and cushion covers, in fact any sort of thing in the "accessory line" are of great use.

We had a very good Xmas, on the whole, and all the patients enjoyed themselves. Again thanking you all for your kind help and with my best wishes,
 Sincerely yours,
 FANNY LAMBERT.

94, Marlborough Mansions,
 West Hampstead, N.W.,
 27th April, 1916.

DEAR LADY MAY,—A large box of excellent clothes, stationery and gingees reached me on April 21st, and I write to thank you and all the members of "Our Little Bit Society" for their gifts.

I am sure from the number of good warm articles that you intended the box to reach us much earlier than it has done. About three weeks ago the weather was so very cold we were thankful for wraps of all kinds, and since Easter it has become downright hot. I have put the scarves and mittens carefully aside for the present, till I see if the warm lasts and I am writing to ask the P.M.O. at Cromarty Defence if he still wants warm wraps for his patients. I came across a Scottish Highlander lately who happened to tell me he was at Cromarty last June and it was then very cold indeed!

The ginger too is always acceptable. I took a few boxes to Hampstead Hospital on Easter Eve instead of "Easter Eggs." The old Infirmary has been turned into a Military Hospital for 200 men, and the wards are decidedly dreary compared to the Chief Military Hospital there which is called "Mount Vernon."

I found two youths in the Infirmary sitting up for the first time. One, an English boy in R.E., badly wounded in head and back with shrapnell in France, and the other a young Canadian from Ottawa. They were much pleased with something to warm them "inside" from Hongkong.

A sergeant of R.E. with leg shattered in France, also much liked his Easter egg—the novelty gratified him. A rather grumpy patient with injured leg who has been months in Hospital and usually grumbles and thinks soldiers will soon be forgotten when the war's over, smiled and thanked me quite warmly for your gift.

The children's caps and jerseys are delightful and I am distributing them with great pleasure. The stationary also is very welcome. The rule before the war in home hospitals was that each man had a week of his personal belongings, and now the rule is that the man is allowed to keep his kit at the station at all times.

STOP PRESS NEWS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

IF THE WAR LASTS ANOTHER YEAR.

WARNING BY A SOCIALIST IN THE PRUSSIAN DIET.

LONDON, June 28.

Herr Surpebel, the Socialist, made a sweeping attack on the plutocrats in the Prussian Diet. He declared that England had raised £300,000,000 by taxation, instead of loans as in Germany. If the German taxpayers had to supply £300,000,000 the war would be ended to-morrow, he said. He warned the Diet that if the war lasted another year quite different forces would be set moving in Germany to curb the power of the Junkers.

HONGKONG AND OPIUM.

At the Annual Meeting of the Society for the Suppression of the Opium Trade held in London May 16th, 1916, the following resolution was moved by Mr. Theodore G. Taylor, M.P., seconded by Rev. A. Baxter, of Canton, and supported by Rev. Professor Caldwell, Dean of King's College, London, and unanimously adopted:—

"This meeting respectfully invites the serious consideration by the Secretary of State for the Colonies of the fact that the administration of Hongkong, the Straits Settlements, and the Federated Malay States have hitherto failed to act up to even the limited ideal laid down in the Colonial Office telegram to the Governor of Hongkong on the 14th May, 1908: 'His Majesty's Government recognise that it is essential in dealing with the opium question in Hongkong that we must act up to the standard set by the Chinese Government.'"

"In most of the provinces of China, including some in which the cultivation of the poppy was a principal source of income to agriculturists, the production, sale, and consumption of opium has been completely suppressed. Yet in these British Colonies and protectorates the sale of opium is still licensed, and a large proportion of its revenue, amounting to more than half is thus derived from the vice of the Chinese labouring population."

WHO'S WHO IN JAPAN

EDITED AND PUBLISHED BY S. KURIHA.

The first (1915) edition is already issued. BIOGRAPHIES of over 5,000 people who are well-known in society and of several hundred foreigners associated with Japan appear in the book. Quite new materials and accurate sketches, both being utterly free from prejudices.

Many portraits are inserted. The book contains over 1,400 pages.

The price is yen 6 (12/-) or $3 per copy. Orders for the book should be accompanied by payment.

Subscribers for the second annual edition of "Who's Who in Japan" will be allowed a reduction of one yen.

The registered postage is 13 sen, to Korea and China 40 sen and to Europe & America 75 sen or 35 cents.

It is a Good Advertising Medium. Many influential papers of the world noticed this work in the highest terms. For example, The Daily Mail says:—

Yet another "Who's Who" in Japan is at first sight regarded as a curiosity, as a sign that the East has now become Western practically almost to the last detail. But "Who's Who in Japan" is a more than a curiosity; it is a very round and useful reference book. It is printed in English and contains brief biographies, on the accepted model of prominent men in Japan. Mr. Kuriha is a skilful editor and has done his work well.

ECZEMA ALL OVER FACE AND NECK!

Also Chest. Could Not Sleep. At Times Could Not Open Eyes. Used Cuticura. Skin Clear.

14, Rensley Rd., Sunderland, Durham, Eng.—"My trouble started five years ago and went all over my face, neck and chest. It commenced with a burning sensation and then started to sweat. It was like needles sticking into my raw flesh. At night time the pain was terrible. At times I could not open my eyes. The trouble had extended right up into my head and I could not see a night's sleep for pain. I was induced to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I gradually improved until now my skin is as clear as ever it was." (Signed) Robinson Cowley, Aug. 18, 1914.
